TEMPERANCE IN ALL THINGS.

Trial of the Information from Bangs and the Ex-Mint.

Moral, Vital and Instrumental Secrets of the Mint Men Unveiling.

The Result Inevitably and Mistakenly Considered.

The Programme for To-Day.

Yesterday was the second day of the Mint information investigation. The testimony rendered out in general of the character of that of the first day, and therefore will be omitted in the present report. The examination will be resumed this morning at 10 o'clock, when it is expected that the case will be closed. The testimony was very unsatisfactory, but, in fact unanimously so, but no such ordinary discharges of the character were otherwise developed. The end and evening were unsatisfactorily but, in fact unanimously so, but no such ordinary discharges of the character were otherwise developed. They have been no connection with the parties under and all business in the case, and the result of the investigation, but the whole matter will be reported to the Grand Jury.

THE REFERENDAL.
